

Southern Comforts: Guest Chef Jean-Marc Boyer

They say that good things come to those who wait and now everyone who missed out on Chef Jean-Marc Boyer's previous visits to Beijing have an opportunity to taste the gastronomic genius of the Frenchman. Chef Jean-Marc returns to the capital for TRB's Guest Chef Programme and promises to ally the Southern French cuisine that has earned him a Michelin star.

Chef Jean-Marc developed his skills at the two Michelin starred Reverberé before two decades in Paris that included time spent at the three Michelin starred Ambroiserie and The Ritz. In 2003, Chef Jean-Marc returned to his native south of France to open Le Puits du Tresor close to historic Carcassonne in Languedoc-Roussillon, where he has championed the region's ingredients and its wine. He earned his first Michelin star four years later.
