

Rough & Refined: Guest Chef Matthias Speybrouck

“Rough & Refined”, the slogan of the restaurant where chef-Matthias Speybrouck owns and operates, tellingly sums up his approach towards cooking. Rough in the sense that the creativity and the flavor of his dishes know no bound, Refined points to the fact on how everything is executed with the highest level of precision in his gastronomic helm.

Taking away the essence of his years of experience working at these highly reputable kitchens, and driven by his own vision and passion, Matthias opened Va et Vient in 2014. With a name meaning “Comes and Goes” in English, this is a restaurant where seasonal products take the center stage, where ever evolving culinary creativity is honored and practiced by the chef and his team. the menu is not of a “fancy” or “extensive” one, yet it is within its simplicity and straightforwardness that the diners discover Chef Matthias’s ability to surprise and to delight the palates.

